

Albany Police Department, NAMI Georgia, NAMI Albany,
and Local Mental Health Professionals present:

Georgia Youth in Crisis (CIT-Youth) Training Course

This training program is primarily designed for law enforcement, educators, mental health providers, counselors, faith leaders, school personnel, and other community members who touch the lives of our youth. The course will provide information to trusted adults to help identify mental health disorders in youth and circumstances that can lead to crisis. Class participants will gain knowledge of effective tools and techniques to assist and support youth and their caregivers. Note: CE's available for LPC and LCSW professionals and POST credit approved for law enforcement.

20-hour training includes topics on:

- Understanding Adolescent Development
- Psychiatric Disorders and Treatment
- Suicidal and Non-Suicidal Self Injury
- Autism and Fetal Alcohol Syndrome
- Bullying and Cyber Bullying
- LGBTQ Youth
- Commercial Sexual Exploitation
- Intellectual Developmental Disabilities and ADHD
- IDEA, IEP, and 504 Plans
- Systems Serving Georgia's Youth
- Crisis Intervention and De-escalation

Registration now open for the following classes:

- May 29-31, 2018 (3 days)
- June 19-21, 2018 (3 days)

Class Times:

- 8:00am - 5:00pm
- 8:00am - 12:00pm on day 3

Class Location:

- Albany Police Department
201 W. Oglethorpe

Pre-registration is required.

Contact: albany nami@gmail.com

