

2019 GAFP ASSEMBLY RESEARCH POSTER COMPETITION

SOWEGA-AHEC's Pathway to Med School Class of 2019 competed in the annual research poster competition at the Georgia Academy of Family Physicians (GAFP) Assembly in Atlanta, GA. GAFP invites students from various categories to compete for cash prizes and acknowledgement for research projects which seek to support underserved populations.

Our poster presentations were awarded 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in the overall pre-med category!

The winning projects in order are:

Assessment of the Relationship Between Healthy Literacy and Diabetes Self-Management Among Patients Served by Federally Qualified Health Centers in Southwest Georgia

Associations Between Perceived Barriers to Papanicolaou Testing at Federally Qualified Health Centers in Southwest Georgia

Assessing the Relationship Between Health Literacy, Asthma Self-Management Knowledge, and Asthma Control

Congratulations PTMS Class of 2019!

Job well done!
